

MEASUREMENT OF TRACK CANT, CURVATURE AND DERIVED PARAMETERS

This report describes new systems that have been developed for the measurement of the track parameters – cant, curvature, cant deficiency and gradient profile. The equipment is suitable for incorporation into new generations of track recording vehicles and has the potential, in production form, of improved performance and reliability, at a significantly reduced cost, over equipment used hitherto.